World Chamber of Commerce To Host International Dignitary Dinner

ATLANTA, GA. – Aug. 11, 2008 The City of Atlanta and the World Chamber of Commerce (WCC) are hosting an International Dignitary Dinner following the last day of events at the America's Competitiveness Forum in Atlanta.

The event is honoring His Excellency Hugo Lavados, Minister of Economy from the Republic of Chile and other dignitaries attending the Forum. The invitee list also includes the over 60 Consulates and Chambers located in the metro Atlanta area, as well as leaders of Georgia government and industry.

"It is a privilege for the WCC to host this dinner," said Solange Warner, Founder and President of the World Chamber of Commerce. "One of our main goals is to act as liaison between foreign entities and American businesses. We believe when countries work together toward a common business goal, we all become stronger and more prosperous."

The International Dignitary Dinner is Tuesday, August 19th at 7:30 p.m. at the World Trade Center at Sun Trust Plaza, 303 Peachtree Street, Atlanta 30308 in the Lower Lobby Restaurant. Admission is open to the public.

Registration and prepayment is requested and available online through August 15th at www.worldchamberc.org. For more information, email info@worldchamberc.org or call 678-938-4605.
